With the acquisition of key assets in diverse sectors of the tourism industry and a robust volume of business, Sakkara Group International was incorporated as the umbrella enterprise for a distinctive group of companies - each mastering a specific area of expertise and providing the best possible service to its clients and partners.

SGI owns and operates an expansive fleet of Nile cruise vessels, hotels & resorts as well as a fleet of buses and limousines. In addition, the Group's portfolio includes full service tour operations and destination management companies, boast professional and experienced teams that drive their ongoing success.

Our approach is based on skillfully providing a broad range of products and continued growth via innovative tourism ventures. While we share the treasures of Egypt's civilization and its wonders with the world, we continue expanding to remain at the forefront of our industry - enhancing and diversifying our services, and establishing hubs around the globe.

The Beginning

It all started in 1972 when a respected Egyptian family business created a tourism portal ... that is when Sakkara Tours was born to be the cornerstone of Sakkara Group International (SGI).

On The Rise

- The company started to experience an immense upsurge in travelers from France, prompting SGI to further expand its scope. As the next step in SGI's development, the company created a transportation department and increased its staff to handle the extensive new business generated by its French partners.
- Subsequently, SGI expanded its portfolio with hotel developments. In 1981, the group launched its first urban hotel, Sonesta Cairo, managed at the time by Hyatt Hotels.
- On the international level, Sakkara Tours diversified its market reach to include several countries, including France, Belgium, Japan, China, USA, UK, India and Russia.

Spreading Out

- In 1989, SGI launched its first Nile cruiser, Nile Goddess, followed by Nile Dream and Lady Diana in 1992.
- STI Travel USA was launched in 2004 followed by STI UK, STI India in 2007, Central Holidays in 2012 and Mosaic Holidays, its most recent acquisition in 2014.

SGI STRENGTHS

At SGI, we enjoy a number of key competitive advantages, which have helped us maintain our position as one of the leading groups in the world. Our principal strengths and competitive advantages are as follows:

- We have a time-honored 47 years of success in the Tourism industry, providing us with the skills and know-how in this field. Over the years, we have developed long-term customer relationships and maintain an impressive reputation for quality. In addition, we have a proven track record of enhancing and modernizing our products consistently to provide innovative offerings for our clients.
- We successfully promote a variety of travel segments including recreational, business and medical.
- Our different offices are promoting Egypt as their first and most significant destination for tourists from all over the world varying from high-end, elite to mid-range tourist class.
- Our multi-lingual and highly motivated staff of 2000 employees with unparalleled knowledge and experience are dedicated to serving our clientele across the globe and working together to ensure their utmost satisfaction is met.

Itinerary

Day 1 - DUBAI

Upon arriving in UAE, transfer from the Dubai airport to your hotel for check-in and enjoy the balance of the day at leisure in this fascinating city.

Day 2 - DUBAI

After breakfast, begin your tour of Dubai at the Bastakia district. Visit the Dubai Museum in Al-Fahidi fort to learn about the city's humble origins as a fishing village. Take a water taxi across the Dubai Creek to Deira to shop for rare spices and one-of-a-kind keepsakes. Take a moment to admire the Grand Mosque in Jumeirah, which is built in the medieval Fatimid style, and take a look at the city's two most famous hotels, Burj Al Arab and Atlantis. Afterward, marvel at Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest tower and the focal point of the region's prominent urban development. Upon your return to Dubai, relish an exotic meal of Arabic and international cuisine while cruising down the Dubai Creek on a traditional dhow. (B,D)

Day 3 - DUBAI

Experience the thrill of driving across the deserts of Dubai in a 4x4 vehicle in the afternoon. This dune drive adventure has many photo stops, but the sunset over the Arabian Desert may well be the highlight of this trip. Savor an authentic Arabian barbecue dinner, accompanied by a performance of professional dancers who will perform the ancient art of belly dancing. Return to your hotel in Dubai. (B,D)

Day 4 - DUBAI | ABU DHABI | DUBAI

Today, you will visit Abu Dhabi, the capital city of the United Arab Emirates. Visit the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, which can accommodate 30,000 worshippers and is one of the world's biggest mosques. In downtown Abu Dhabi, visit the Heritage Village, which takes you back into the Arab life before the discovery of oil.

Drive to the tip of the breakwater after lunch to get an amazing view of the skyline. Then visit Saadiyat Island where the Louvre Museum and the Guggenheim Museum annexes are being developed. Finally, you will go to Yas Island to see Formula 1 racing on the Formula Yas 3000 circuit and experience Ferrari World, the world's first Ferrari-themed amusement park. Overnight in Dubai. (B,L)

Day 5 - DUBAI | EAST COAST | DUBAI

The terrain shifts from deserts to mountains as you journey to the UAE's eastern coast. On the shore you will visit Dibba, an old village that once held strategic significance and gives stunning views of the Indian Ocean. Afterwards, explore Al Badiya Mosque, the nation's oldest mosque dating back to the 17th century. After lunch, visit the port town of Khor Fakkan, the 300-year-old Fujairah Fort, and Bithnah Citadel, a nearby fortress. Return to Dubai. (B,L)

Day 6 - DUBAI

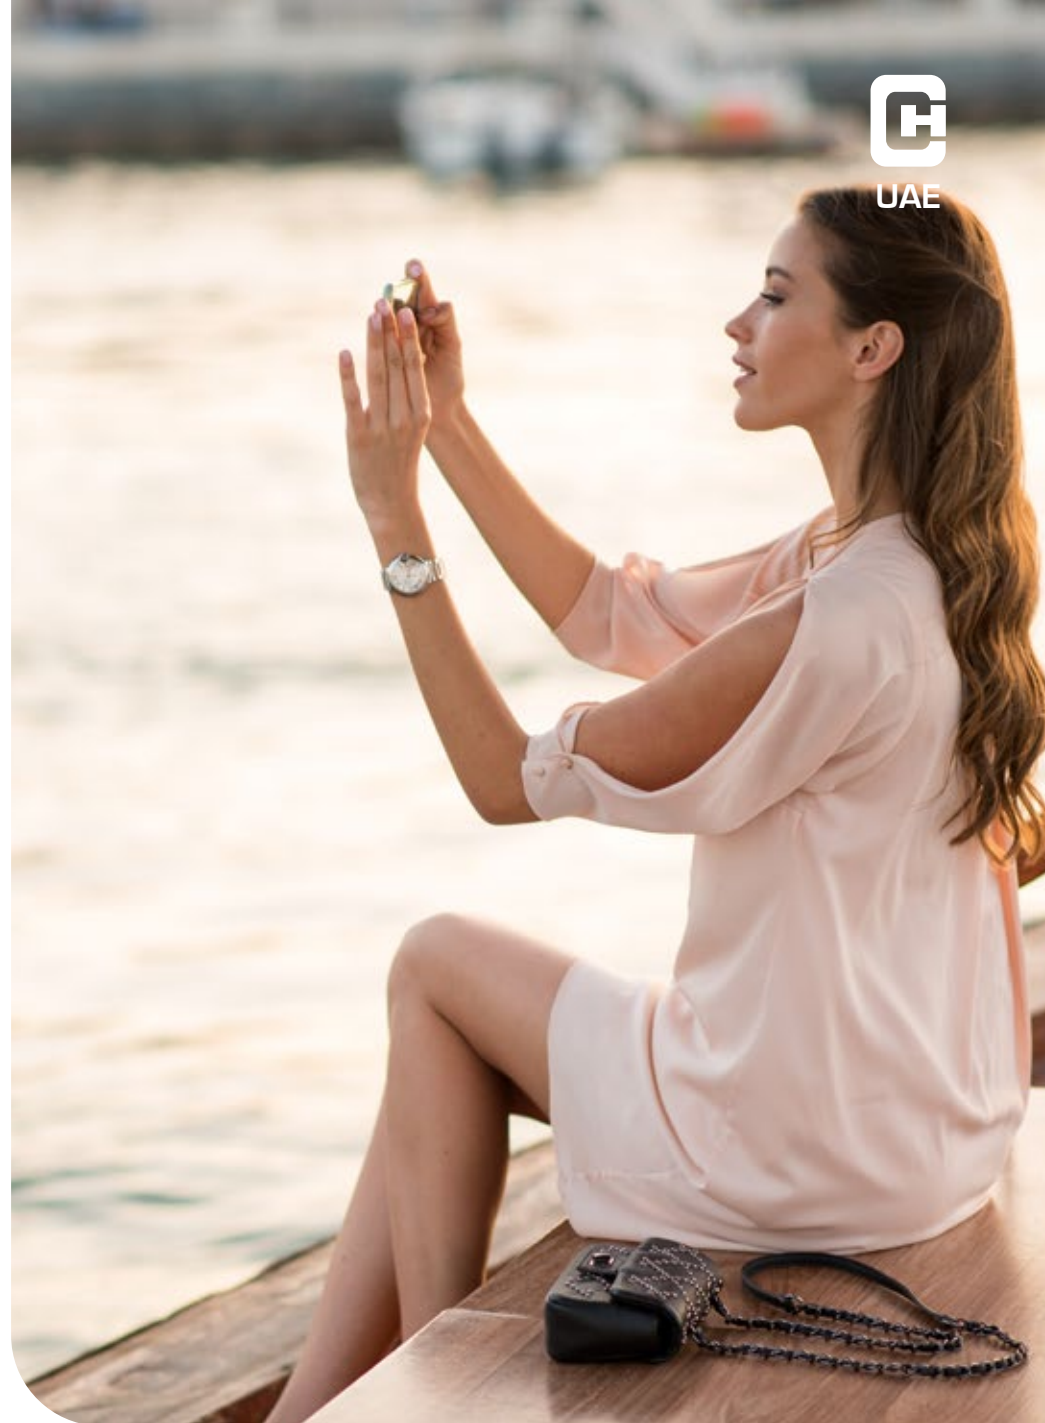

Dubai's splendor can be enjoyed in a day of leisure, or discover the city on your own. (B)

Day 7 - DUBAI | AL AIN | DUBAI

Today, you will move towards the Eastern Emirates and Al Ain, dotted with numerous subterranean water springs. This once-important trading hub is formerly the seat of the Sheikhs and home to a wealth of desert culture, including an 18th-century bazaar, a camel race track, and a livestock market. After visiting the Al Ain National Museum and Sheikh Zayed Palace Museum, you will ascend Jebel Hafeet. Then immerse yourself in the healing hot springs flowing abundantly at the foot of the mountain. After lunch you head back to the splendid city of Dubai. (B,L)

Day 8 - DUBAI TO USA (OR EXTEND YOUR STAY)

Breakfast at your hotel then transfer to Dubai airport for your departure flight home. (B)
